

Talk Homework 26/4/18

Story Writing

This week you are going to write a story about an adventure in the forest. A boy called Jack walks through the forest and hears a noise. A voice says 'Who are you?' and Jack turns to see a talking mushroom!

What happens next?

Are there any other characters?

How is the story finished/resolved?

Remember you are not required to make written notes as this is talk homework.
